THE HOOSIER OWL

Volume 9 1945

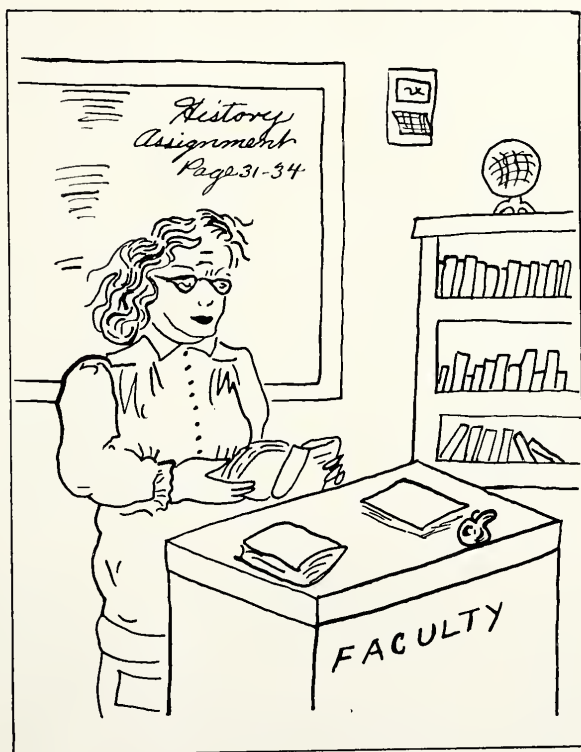

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class, affectionately dedicate this issue of The Hoosier Owl to our parents, whose tireless efforts and willing sacrifices made possible our twelve years of schooling.

APPRECIATION

In appreciation to Mrs. Butt for all the time and labor spent in the publication of this book, as well as in the field of teaching; we, the Seniors of 1945, dedicate this page.

GIVING STRONG BODIES,

We, the Senior Class of '45, will to the Juniors our seats by the windows. To the Sophomores we will our quiet ways. We will to the Freshmen our ability to get along with the teachers.

I Virginia Craig will my interest in Poling to Velma Rittenhouse.

I Leonard Dale will my trouble with my Ford to anyone who thinks he can do better.

I Bob Davidson will my ability to sleep in class to Cledith Loy.

I Duane Dickson will my head of hair to anyone who doesn't have time to comb their's.

I Eugene Dynes will my ability to get to school late to Leon Garlinger.

I Delbert Flesher will my good conduct grades to Norma Jean Keller.

I Dorothy Frank will my steady boy friend to Eulalia Slusser.

I Keith Gillespie will my ability to tease people to Mary Ashcraft.

I Fred Haffner will my ability to ride a motorcycle to Raymond Milligan.

I Beatrice Kenyon will my curly hair to who ever wants it.

I Bob Masters will my ability to go with two girls to Jake Armantrout.

I Betty Morgan will my flirting ways to Pauline Huey.

I Bill Orr will my ability to sleep with my eyes open to any underclassman who has not already acquired it.

I Hazel Pyle will nothing because I need all I have.

I Wanda Pyle will my ability to eat during the entire noon hour to anyone who longs for a better digestion.

I Richard Shawver will my ability to get the front seat to anyone who wants it.

I Betty Smith will the honor of being a preacher's daughter to June Maitlen.

I Virginia Uptygraft will anything to anybody who thinks they want it worse than I do.

I Jene Wendel will my height to Bernard Post.

I Royce Wright will my ability to stay out late at night to Ralph Ashcraft.

BROAD MINDS

Class History

We entered Bryant High School in September in the fall of '41 with 27 members in our class. Jene Wendel, Delbert Flesher, Bobby Scott and Bob Davidson were new. We were rather shy. The following officers were elected: President, Fred Haffner; Vice President, Dora Dean Shrider; Secretary and Treasurer, Joe Arnold. Wanda Pyle represented our class in the Queen contest winning third place. Our sponsor was Miss Violet Funk. We enjoyed many parties and of course some of the freshmen boys were initiated. Joe Arnold left us to go to Portland and Betty Morgan came to us from Pennville in the latter part of the year.

In the fall of '42 most of us returned to be sophomores. With 25 members, Junior Butcher and Arthur Huey failed to return. We weren't quite so shy this year, as our teachers soon found out. We elected the following officers: President, Jimmy Miller; Vice President, Delbert Flesher; Secretary and Treasurer, Bill Orr. Our sponsor was Mr. Lee Glentzer. We enjoyed several parties. Mary Harden and Nelda Hiff dropped out during the year.

Again we came back to our school rooms in the fall of '43, to find that only 20 members returned. Now classified as juniors we felt fairly sure of ourselves. Just to think only one more year and we would be seniors! Jimmy Miller went to Portland to school, and Bob Scott and Dora Dean Shrider dropped out. We elected the following officers: President, Royce Wright; Vice President, Keith Gillespie; Secretary and Treasurer, Delbert Flesher. Our sponsor, and also director of our play, was Mr. Donald Deaton. The name of the play which we gave was, "They Gave Him a Co-Ed." The proceeds went to finance the Junior and Senior Reception. Hazel Pyle represented our class as queen in the Queen contest by taking first place. We also had several parties all of which we enjoyed. Duane Dickson from Pennville joined us in the second semester.

As we returned as seniors we began to realize our place in the world. There were 21 of us, but Marvin Towell soon left us to join Uncle Sam's Navy. Hazel Pyle was elected President; Dorothy Frank, Vice President; Eugene Dynes, Secretary and Treasurer. Mr. Wayne Haffner was chosen as our sponsor. We presented the play, "Am I Intruding?" under the direction of Mr. C. E. Beck. Virginia Uptgraft represented our class in the Queen contest taking second place. A few parties were held which we enjoyed.

Now we leave you to go out into the world. Some of us have gone all twelve years together. Some may go to college. Others may get married. Many may be called into Uncle Sam's fighting forces.

LAUGHING IN THE FACE OF DANGER

Class Prophecy

After a busy season of outfitting the June brides and bridesmaids of New York society we (Hazel and Dorothy) decided to close our P. M. Fashion shop on Fifth Avenue, and take a trip over the week-end. After packing our overnight bags we started out in our Piper Cub for England.

We arrived at the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Knight. Mrs. Knight was the former Miss Betty Morgan. We found Betty in the best of health and very happy with her husband and three children.

In the morning we started back to the United States and stopped at a small island in the Atlantic and found Bob Davidson was the owner. He farmed the entire island by push button so that he could get his needed rest.

Since we had not seen our friends in the middle west for a while, we flew on to Detroit. We visited Delbert Flesher's flower shop and undertaking establishment, and ran across Betty Jean Smith. She said she had married a famous band leader and they had just returned from Hollywood where he had played in a movie, "Heavenly Hideaway," co-starring Virginia Craig and Rosco Hayworth. Betty Jean was buying flowers to send to Virginia Uptygraft, Republican candidate for president of 1956. Miss Uptygraft was resting up at the Fairview Hospital before her final campaign against Roosevelt.

We went to the hospital with Betty Jean and found Jene Wendel there acting as head nurse. Jene told us that Wanda Pyle was also working there as a dietitian. After visiting Miss Uptygraft we saw Royce Wright who was recently featured at a local arena with his gang of dare-devil drivers. After the show Royce had the misfortune to slip on a banana peeling and break his leg.

Stepping in Ft. Wayne we looked around for a place to eat our evening meal and saw a large sign reading, "Dine at Dyners". We went inside and found it was managed by our classmate, Eugene Dynes.

In the morning we rushed out to Hoagland to hear a sermon by the famous Rev. William H. Orr. His subject was, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not." Eccl. 12:1.

After this very inspiring sermon we continued our way to Bryant. The next day we went to the Modern Beauty Shoppe and found Beatrice Kenyon, the owner, curling Bob Master's hair. Bob told us he was head of the Jay County Road Builders, Inc. He said that he had recently paved our old familiar lover's lanes.

At Portland we saw Keith Gillespie on the street. He was going to the County Agent's office for information on feeding his new breed of hog, the bopshire. We went along with him and found the county agent was Leonard Dale. He said he enjoyed his work very much.

When we arrived in New York we stopped at an air field. The field was owned and operated by Duane Dickson and Fred Haffner. We also saw Richard Shawver there. He was getting his helicopter refueled. He said he had been a traveling salesman ever since he had graduated from High School.

We went back to our shop very well satisfied with our short vacation.

SINGING IN PERIL

Can U Imagine ? ? ?

Virginia Craig not crackin' her gum?
Leonard Dale when out with a girl?
Eob Davidson not sleeping through Deaton's classes?
Duane Dickson not writing to Grayce Myers?
Eugene Dynes having Delbert's flirting ways?
Delbert Flesher not going on trips during school?
Dorothy Frank wearing a short dress to school?
Keith Gillespie having plenty of gas?
Fred Haffner not playing up to the teachers?
Beatrice Kenyon not combing her hair?
Bob Masters being interested in one of the Uptygrafts?
Betty Morgan staying home?
Bill Orr without an answer?
Hazel Pyle going some place without Dorothy?
Wanda Pyle going steady?
Richard Shawver missing his trip to Winchester?
Betty Jean Smith not going with Ohio boys?
Virginia Uptygraft not discussing the night before with Wanda?
Jene Wendel not having her shorthand?
Royce Wright trying not to be noticed?

CAN U IMAGINE THESE TEACHERS ? ? ?

Mr. Beck not bragging?
Mr. Deaton not making a speech?
Mr. Haffner dancing at the Pines?
Mr. Sphar throwing olive bottles?
Mrs. Ketchum with a long dress?
Mrs. McCollum without a hair net?
Mrs. Butt not making you get an excuse to get into class?

YET, IN OUR HEARTS,

Our Class

Here come the seniors,
Of nineteen forty-five,
Marching along so cheerfully,
To the Bryant High School jive.

I'll try to name them,
As they come marching past,
And say a little about each,
If they don't come too fast.

First we'll have Virginia Craig,
Who really likes her candy,
Who is always in a joyful mood,
With laughter always handy.

Leonard Dale comes next,
And of course his Model A,
He is always having trouble,
With the darned thing every day.

Bob Davidson comes marching on,
With his happiness so dear,
He likes to ride on horses,
And graduate from here.

Here comes a familiar face,
I believe it's Eugene Dynes,
Who wants both rest and peace,
And for happiness he pines.

Delbert Flesher comes marcing by,
He had a swell G. L.,
He likes to dance and swing,
But never tells a lie.

Here comes Dorothy Frank,
Who is laughing all the while,
And any time you can't find her,
Just look for Hazel Pyle.

Next is Keith Gillespie,
Who is a friend to all,
He got some brand new tires,
When his gas was gone this fall.

Here comes Fred Haffner,
From the Main Street Service Station,
Of course that's in Portland,
He thinks it's the best in the nation.

Beatrice Kenyon is coming now,
Her sportsmanship is swell,
We call her all kinds of names,
But the source she considers well.

Bob Masters is following her,
Alphebetically of course I mean,
He runs around with the Uptygraft girls,
At least that's what we've seen.

Ah! I see Betty Morgan,
She works down at the General Store,
We call her Cig for short,
But she doesn't care any more.

Come on kids clear the stage,
Bill Orr is coming on,
And every place that you have been,
You'll find that he has gone.

Here comes Hazel Pyle,
She is the president of our class,
Ask the girls about the election,
And they'll just let the matter pass.

This girl you see is Wanda Pyle,
No relation to Hazel at all,
Say, Wanda, where's your beau,
The one you had last fall?

Richard Shawver is coming next,
A fine lad you'll find is he,
We all torment him about the girls,
That he is trying to see.

Betty Jean Smith we know you're here,
So come out and show your face,
Let these people have a look at you,
Come on smile, just in case.

Jene Wendel comes marching out,
As if she were in a parade,
Come on kid, just relax,
There's no need to be afraid.

Here comes Virginia Uptygraft,
You certainly should know her,
Bob Masters does I know,
From the scenes I've seen occur.

Here comes Royce Wright,
Who never drives too slow,
His Ford is like a Chameleon,
It changed color not long ago.

And last of all just me,
Who really likes a friend,
Who hasn't been here long,
But I stayed until the end.

Class Plays

JUNIOR PLAY OF 1944

For our Junior play we presented a three act comedy, "They Gave Him A Co-Ed."

After much advertising, hard work, and practicing, we had the play ready to present on February 10th and 12th. Unfortunately, there was a bad snow storm that week and the roads were blocked so that we had to put it off for a week.

The first night we all had slight cases of stage fright but soon found that there was really nothing to fear. The second night Royce Wright was unable to take his part and Mr. Deaton, our director, very successfully played it.

Leonard Dale played the part of a country boy; Fred Haffner, the new dean of Cold Canyon College; Jene Wendel, college registrar; Delbert Flesher, a young man looking for his ideal; and Eugene Dynes, a lunatic. A group of college boys and girls added much to the play with their "heart troubles" and loves. Playing the parts of these were: Bill Orr, Hazel Pyle, Virginia Uptygraft, Royce Wright, Wanda Pyle, Virginia Craig, Bob Masters, Dorothy Frank, Betty Jean Smith, Keith Gillespie, and Beatrice Kenyon.

SENIOR PLAY OF 1945

After much consideration, our class decided to give "Am I Intruding?", a mystery comedy in three acts, for our Senior class play.

Leonard Dale played the part of a country boy so well last year that he was chosen for a similar part. Virginia Uptygraft was given the part of the attractive girl he won. Fred Haffner was featured as the father. Hazel Pyle and Beatrice Kenyon played the parts of girls of 17, while Bill Orr and Delbert Flesher played the parts of their "heart throbs."

Eugene Dynes was cast as the mysterious Mr. Hoover, a crook; and Dorothy Frank, the French maid who turned out to be his wife. Virginia Craig played the part of the middle aged housekeeper. Duane Dickson was secretary to Wanda Pyle, who played the part of the dignified author of "The Aching Heart or How to Cure the Ills of the World."

In spite of drifted and icy roads during the time in which we practiced, the weather cleared up somewhat February 9th and 10th, the nights on which we presented the play. We were rewarded with large crowds at both performances and received many compliments on our acting.

Hits and Runs

With superb playing by all the boys on the squad the Bryant Owls finished one of their most successful baseball seasons with a record of five wins and one game lost.

The team started the season with an easy victory over their old rival, Gray, by a score of 14 to 6. Defending our home diamond against Poling we scored an overwhelming victory of 22 to 5. Still feeling the bitter effects of last years defeat handed us by Berne, we won a hard fought game to a score of 14 to 12. On October 11 we were handed our first defeat by a magnificent Berne team, 5 to 3. Winding up the season Bryant defeated Gray 19 to 4.
